I want CHOICES.

- More than 200 majors, minors and combined-degree programs
- Award-winning Undergraduate Research and Creative Activities program
- Study abroad opportunities in Florence, Italy; Korea; Moscow, Russia; and St. Petersburg
- College of Engineering and Applied Sciences with seven ABET-accredited programs
- School of Marine and Atmospheric Sciences with classrooms on the water
- The only public undergraduate School of Aviation in New York State
- Opportunities for research at Brookhaven National Laboratory
- Leading U.S. academic medical center, with hospital on campus
- Internships and leadership opportunities for all interests

I want FUN.

- Over the past six seasons, Stony Brook has won 38 conference championships, and earned 24 national postseason bids.
- Students stroll near the Wang Center fountain, relax in the residence halls, cheer in our 8,300-seat stadium, play a game of catch on campus, race cardboard boats in the annual Roth Pond Regatta, enjoy hoops in the new 85,000-square-foot Campus Recreation Center, and show their game face.

I want VALUE.

Top: Mechanical Engineering students in the Rockwell Automation NCSU Mechatronics Laboratory. Center: Students work in the College of Agriculture and Life Sciences. Right: A public broodstock nursery for Channel Catfish. Bottom: Students learn about the ocean aboard one of Stony Brook’s research vessels.

Top: Over the past six seasons, Stony Brook has won 38 conference championships and earned 24 national post-season bids. Center: Students stroll near the Wang Center fountain, relax in the residence hall, cheer in our 8,300-seat stadium, play a game of catch on campus, race cardboard boats in the annual Roth Pond Regatta, react in shock to the new 85,000-square-foot Campus Recreation Center, and show their game face.
